

virtual event is organized by Slovenian Diversity Charter as part of traditional signing ceremony

Opening speech will be delivered by Human Right Ombudsman of the Republic Slovenia Mr. Peter Svetina.

The round table is an opportunity to reaffirm the importance of diversity and inclusion in re-building the world we want, the need for global solidarity as well as »our awareness of interdependence, complementarity and willness to take responsibility for our actions in a successful and sustainable society« (from the Slovenian DC).

Guests from Sweden, Austria, Poland, Slovenia, UK and USA will share good D&I practices and main obstacles that economy sector is facing in Covid-19 pandemic.

The event is free of charge, but registration is required: APPLICATION FORM

We will provide you shortly with a more detailed programme and speaker profiles.*

Looking forward to see you!

Team of Diversity Charter of Slovenia

* Follow event updates on the website: Diversity against Pandemic

The event will be held in English.